"Pan"

For the Letter P i took a photograph of my Hatsune Miku figure and cropped it to form the letter, for the letter A, I immediately noticed that our stool looked like the letter a so I took a photograph of it. Lastly, for the Letter N to be honest it took me a long time to find anything that looks like N and if I remember correctly, I spent almost 20 minutes of the 30 minutes allotted for our activity in looking for my last letter. I found the N from the scaffolding in our backyard. I had a lot of fun with our first activity!

The title for this self-portrait is "PERCEPTIVE"

At first, I wasn't sure what word I would use to describe myself. But while I was thinking, I remembered how my friends would always go to me for advice whenever something troubles them and so I used the word perceptive.

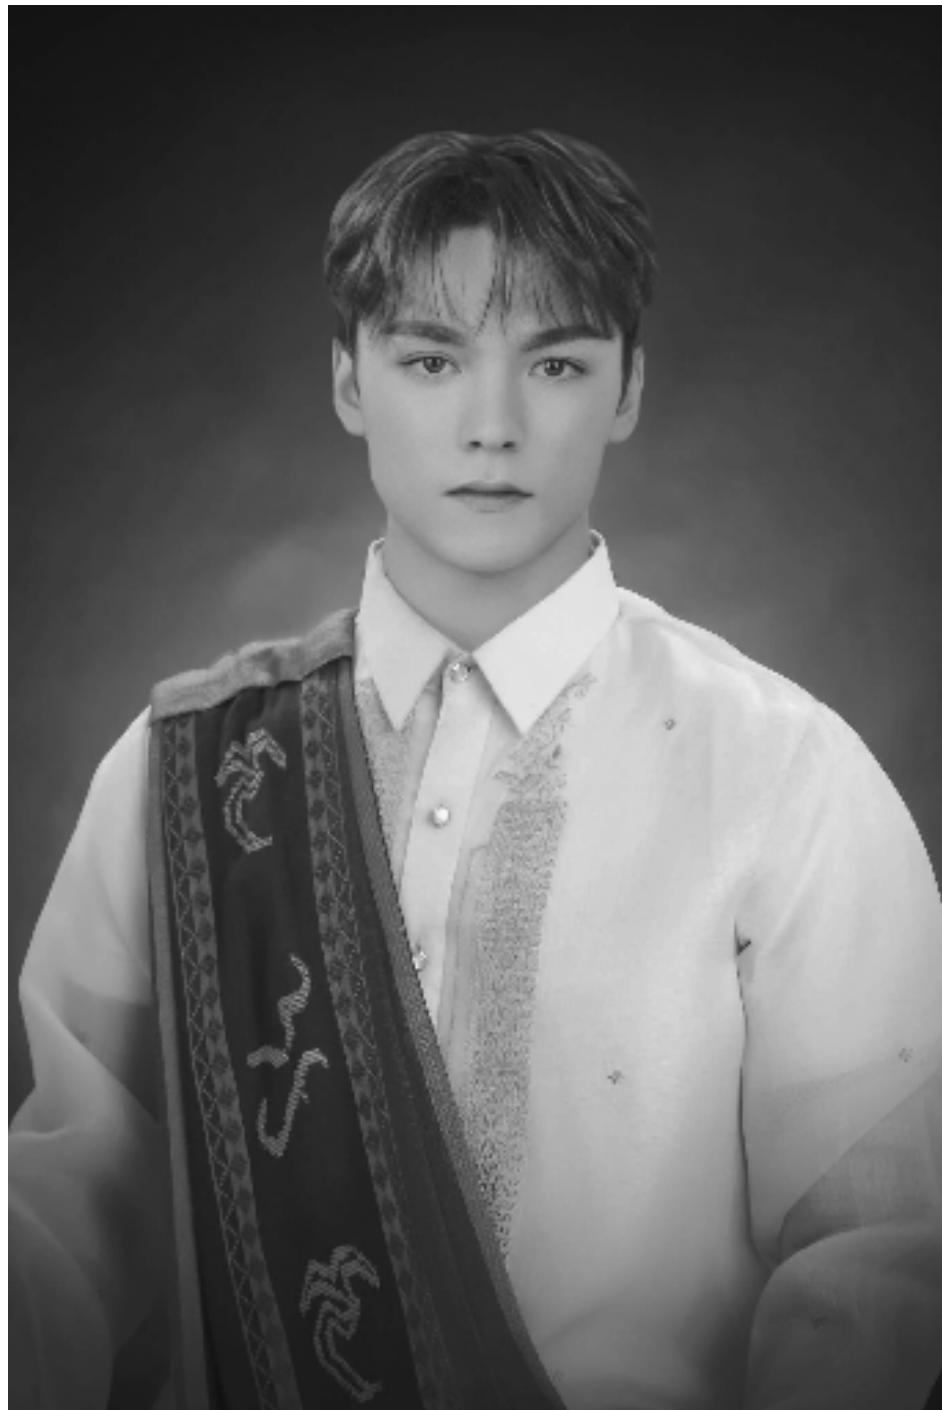

I wanted to show this by magnifying my eye, symbolizing how I would be observant at all times. It also shows how insightful I am as a person.
